IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Gary Link of Evans National Bank Promoted to Branch Manager Accepts New Position in His Current North Buffalo Office

Hamburg, NY, January 1, 2007 – Evans National Bank, (parent company Evans Bancorp, Inc., NASDAQ: EVBN), is pleased to announce the promotion of Gary Link from assistant branch manager to branch manager of the Bank's North Buffalo office located at 2670 Delaware Avenue. Link has served as the assistant branch manager for the North Buffalo office for the past two years. Prior to joining Evans National Bank, Link spent 5 years with M & T Bank, where he served as an operations supervisor and assistant manager.

"Gary is extremely well positioned to assume leadership of our North Buffalo Office given his experience and working relationship with our customers there. His comprehensive knowledge of banking principles, together with his contacts and active community involvement make him a valuable asset to the Bank," stated David Nasca, president of Evans Bancorp and Evans National Bank.

Link added, "I am thrilled to have the opportunity to continue growing the Evans National Bank brand of community banking to the residents and businesses of North Buffalo and surrounding communities in my new position as branch manager."

Link, who resides in Buffalo, serves as president for KanKare Foundation, treasurer for Westside Businesses and Taxpayers Association, and is an active member of the Ken-Ton Chamber of Commerce. He is currently completing a bachelor's degree in business management from Medaille College.
