IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Evans National Bank to open new branch on Elmwood Avenue in the City of Buffalo

Hamburg, NY, November 27, 2007 – Evans National Bank, (parent company Evans Bancorp, Inc., NASDAQ: EVBN), announces that the bank has received approval to open a new branch at 925 Elmwood Avenue in the Elmwood Village Community. Scheduled to open in the spring of 2008, the new location represents Evans National Bank's 12th branch in Western New York.

David J. Nasca, president and chief executive officer of Evans Bancorp and Evans National Bank, noted, "Our new branch will be exceptionally well-suited to the Elmwood Village community." This area was recently named as one of the nation's top 10 great neighborhoods by the American Planning Association.

"The Elmwood community is an exciting and vibrant city neighborhood, and our new Evans National Bank branch is designed with this unique character in mind," he explained. "While the architecture will complement the area, the features and services offered will differentiate our customer's banking experience. Our goal is to create a true community bank atmosphere, where ease, convenience and exceptional personal service for residents and business owners are priorities. Our staff will be involved with the broad spectrum of cultural and social assets that this neighborhood offers."

Plans for the new Elmwood Avenue branch include both drive through and vestibule ATMs featuring advanced functionality, large-screen plasma TV monitors for providing banking and community information, and a creative interior design concept allowing greater interaction among customers and bank associates. The new location will give Elmwood area residents and businesses access to a wide variety of banking, insurance and investment products and services.
